| TOPIC      | Puetnika Airfield  | 25 X 1  |
|------------|--|--|
|            | THE LTT LX ALTY 150 medical control of the control  | 25X1   |
|            |  | 25X1   |
| EVALUATION | PLACE OBTAINED   | ZON I  |
| DATE OF CO |  | 25X1   |
| ATE OBTAI  | NED  | ran erwera mariere mongo a rabano diapanger anayo se a             |
| EFERENCE   |  | The Control of Part of State Boother Security (1994)               |
| AGES2_     | ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) 1 - sketch on ditto  | esti Altonocha il o Sentiat (SAOSPOSSE), edoci pias ana            |
| EMARKS_    |  | a cula Philadriusc vigitalis i filmanifilialis sangale, iliustanti |
|            | 1971, Water Production and the Control of the Contr |  |
|            |  | PARAGE ANNOUNCEMENT STREET, MICH.                                  |
|            | This is UNEVALUATED Information  | 25 X 1  |
|            |  |  |
|            |  |  |
|            |  |  |
| l.         | the new taxiway at Puetnitz airfi  | el d  |
|     | which begins at the east end of the runway and turns slightly to the north to a group of five buildings.  a sketch of the runway   |  |
|            | and of the taxiway which passes along the hangars.   |  |
|            |  | 051/4  |
| 2.         | In 1950, construction work was started on a drainage ditch, about 30 cm  | 25 X 1  |
| 2.         | In 1950, construction work was started on a drainage ditch, about 30 cm wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new run-   | 25 X 1  |
| 2.         | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new run-way. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the newrunway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle to  |  |
| 2.         | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new run-way. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the newrunway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle toit. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the new  | ₩ 25X1   |
| 2.         | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new run-way. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the newrunway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle to  | ₩ 25X1   |
|            | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new run-way. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the newrunway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle toit. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the nerrunway toward the southwest. At the old runway, this ditch connected withthe other ditch which ended at Lake Ribnitz.   | w 25X1th   |
| 2.         | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new run-way. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the newrunway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle toit. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the nerrunway toward the southwest. At the old runway, this ditch connected withthe other ditch which ended at Lake Ribnitz. I   | w 25X1th   |
|            | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new runway. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the new runway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle to it. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the new runway toward the southwest. At the old runway, this ditch connected with other ditch which ended at Lake Ribnitz.  On 15, 16, 22, 23, and 30 November and on 1, 6, and 7 December 1952, no air activity was observed at the field. Usually, there was hazy or foggiven weather. No aircraft were observed on the previously occupied dispersal   | w 25X1th   |
|            | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new run-way. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the newrunway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle toit. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the newrunway toward the southwest. At the old runway, this ditch connected withthe other ditch which ended at Lake Ribnitz.  On 15, 16, 22, 23, and 30 November and on 1, 6, and 7 December 1952, noair activity was observed at the field. Usually, there was hazy or fogg   | w 25X1th   |
|            | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new runway. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the new runway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle to it. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the new runway toward the southwest. At the old runway, this ditch connected with other ditch which ended at Lake Ribnitz.  On 15, 16, 22, 23, and 30 November and on 1, 6, and 7 December 1952, no air activity was observed at the field. Usually, there was hazy or fogg weather. No aircraft were observed on the previously occupied dispersal area in line with the sheep-farm.  On the weekends in late November and early December 1952, individual   | w 25X1th   |
| 3.         | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new runway. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the new runway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle to it. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the new runway toward the southwest. At the old runway, this ditch connected withe other ditch which ended at Lake Ribnitz.  On 15, 16, 22, 23, and 30 November and on 1, 6, and 7 December 1952, no air activity was observed at the field. Usually, there was hazy or foggive weather. No aircraft were observed on the previously occupied dispersal area in line with the sheep-farm.  On the weekends in late November and early December 1952, individual groups of soldiers with suitcases were observed on the way from the field to the railroad station.  | w 25X1th   |
| 3.         | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new runway. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the new runway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle to it. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the new runway toward the southwest. At the old runway, this ditch connected withe other ditch which ended at Lake Ribnitz.  On 15, 16, 22, 23, and 30 November and on 1, 6, and 7 December 1952, no air activity was observed at the field. Usually, there was hazy or foggive weather. No aircraft were observed on the previously occupied dispersal area in line with the sheep-farm.  On the weekends in late November and early December 1952, individual groups of soldiers with suiteases were observed on the way from the   | w 25X1th25   |
| 3.         | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new runway. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the new runway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle to it. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the new runway toward the southwest. At the old runway, this ditch connected withe other ditch which ended at Lake Ribnitz.  On 15, 16, 22, 23, and 30 November and on 1, 6, and 7 December 1952, no air activity was observed at the field. Usually, there was hazy or foggive ather. No aircraft were observed on the previously occupied dispersal area in line with the sheep-farm.  On the weekends in late November and early December 1952, individual groups of soldiers with suitcases were observed on the way from the field to the railroad station.  groups of air force officers and EM have been dispatched to Rostock for three weeks.  | w 25X1th25   |
| . 4.       | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new runway. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the new runway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle to it. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the new runway toward the southwest. At the old runway, this ditch connected withhe other ditch which ended at Lake Ribnitz.  On 15, 16, 22, 23, and 30 November and on 1, 6, and 7 December 1952, no air activity was observed at the field. Usually, there was hazy or foggweather. No aircraft were observed on the previously occupied dispersal area in line with the sheep-farm.  On the weekends in late November and early December 1952, individual groups of soldiers with suitcases were observed on the way from the field to the railroad station.   | w 25X1th 25y 25  |
| 3.         | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new runway. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the new runway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle to it. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the new runway toward the southwest. At the old runway, this ditch connected withhe other ditch which ended at Lake Ribnitz.  On 15, 16, 22, 23, and 30 November and on 1, 6, and 7 December 1952, no air activity was observed at the field. Usually, there was hazy or foggive ather. No aircraft were observed on the previously occupied dispersal area in line with the sheep-farm.  On the weekends in late November and early December 1952, individual groups of soldiers with suitcases were observed on the way from the field to the railroad station.  groups of air force officers and EM have been dispatched to Rostock for three weeks.  Motor vehicles which were observed entering and leaving the field in-  | 25X1th 25y   |
| 3.         | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new runway. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the new runway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle to it. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the new runway toward the southwest. At the old runway, this ditch connected withhe other ditch which ended at Lake Ribnitz.  On 15, 16, 22, 23, and 30 November and on 1, 6, and 7 December 1952, no air activity was observed at the field. Usually, there was hazy or foggive ather. No aircraft were observed on the previously occupied dispersal area in line with the sheep-farm.  On the weekends in late November and early December 1952, individual groups of soldiers with suitcases were observed on the way from the field to the railroad station.  groups of air force officers and EM have been dispatched to Rostock for three weeks.  Motor vehicles which were observed entering and leaving the field in-  | 25 25 25 25  |
| . 45   | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new runway. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the new runway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle to it. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the new runway toward the southwest. At the old runway, this ditch connected with the other ditch which ended at Lake Ribnitz.  On 15, 16, 22, 23, and 30 November and on 1, 6, and 7 December 1952, no air activity was observed at the field. Usually, there was hazy or foggive ather. No aircraft were observed on the previously occupied dispersal area in line with the sheep-farm.  On the weekends in late November and early December 1952, individual groups of soldiers with suitcases were observed on the way from the field to the railroad station.  The groups of air force officers and EM have been dispatched to Rostock for three weeks.  Motor vehicles which were observed entering and leaving the field included ambulance pipes.  Comment.  | 25 25 25 25  |
| 3.4.   | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new runway. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the new runway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle to it. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the new runway toward the southwest. At the old runway, this ditch connected withe other ditch which ended at Lake Ribnitz.  On 15, 16, 22, 23, and 30 November and on 1, 6, and 7 December 1952, no air activity was observed at the field. Usually, there was hazy or foggi weather. No aircraft were observed on the previously occupied dispersal area in line with the sheep-farm.  On the weekends in late November and early December 1952, individual groups of soldiers with suitcases were observed on the way from the field to the railroad station.  groups of air force officers and EM have been dispatched to Rostock for three weeks.  Motor vehicles which were observed entering and leaving the field included ambulance group of tuildings entered on this sketch is re-   | 25X1th 25252525X1                                  |
| . 45   | wide and covered with cement and stones, on both sides of the new runway. Cement pipes 60 cm in diameter were laid on both sides of the new runway and clay pipes passed under the runway and at a right angle to it. Another ditch with cement pipes was built from the middle of the new runway toward the southwest. At the old runway, this ditch connected with the other ditch which ended at Lake Ribnitz.  On 15, 16, 22, 23, and 30 November and on 1, 6, and 7 December 1952, no air activity was observed at the field. Usually, there was hazy or foggi weather. No aircraft were observed on the previously occupied dispersal area in line with the sheep-farm.  On the weekends in late November and early December 1952, individual groups of soldiers with suitcases were observed on the way from the field to the railroad station.  groups of air force officers and EM have been dispatched to Rostock for three weeks.  Motor vehicles which were observed entering and leaving the field included ambulance  Comment.  For sketch   | w 25X1th   |

|            | SHOWER OWNER - 0.5. OFFICIALS UNLY  |      | 23 X I |
|------------|---|------|---------------|
|            | -2.   |      |               |
| ວ ູ | Comment. Fuetnitz nightals  |      |               |
| - a:   | is occupied by the headquarters of a fighter division and two fighter regiments. The reported dispersal areas in line with the sheep-farm   |      | 25 X 1 |
|            | are located in the southeastern section of the field. It can be assume that most of the aircraft are parked in the area of the hangars in the western section of the field. This area could not be observed because of the foggy weather.       | ie · |               |
| ,          | Comment. It is unknown where the soldiers went. Since a training detachment of the Puetnitz regiment has been stationed at Neubrandenburg airfield since early November 1952, it is believed possible that the soldiers went to Neubrandenburg. |      | 25X1          |

SECTET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS CHLY